 St. Peter's Church.—Services at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. by Rev. J. M. Nourse.

COMPETITIVE DRILL.—Owing to the slow progress of the contractors, the Cadet Corps of St. John's Academy is not yet fully uniformed, but it visited the Odd Fellows' fair last night, partly in dress and partly in uniform, under the command of Lieut. Medlett, drilled for the medal offered by the managers. The officers of the Alexandria Light Infantry being in Richmond, Privates W. E. Hicken and J. H. Baylies, of that company, acted as judges, and the prize was awarded to Corporal Richard Henry Lee Chichester, son of Judge Chichester of the Fairfax and Alexandria County Courts. The other chief competitors were Sergeant H. Ennals Holt, the winner of the Potter medal last season, who was thrown out on "order arms" from "undix bayonets," and George H. O'Connor, the little drummer, who was the smallest of the competitors, and was thrown out on "undix bayonets," his gun being a little too much for him. The cadet officers were greatly pleased with the decision of the judges which they regarded as an eminently fair one.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and cool with six prisoners and two lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Geo. Boston, colored, arrested by officer McCuen for stealing a stove from Eliza Mason, also colored, was sent to jail for 60 days.

Nancy Harris and Martha Thomas, colored, arrested by officers Taylor and Bontz for disorderly conduct, were fined $1 each.

Three tramps, arrested by officer Taylor for vagrancy, were ordered to leave the city.

Scott Butler and Wm. Conklin were arrested this morning by officer Bontz for fighting and locked up for further examination.

OPERA HOUSE.—On Tuesday next Mr. John Wild and his company will appear here. The Bridgeport News says: "The searchers after dramatic excellence must travel long and far to discover a better comedy composition than Running Wild. 'An expedition of smothered fun' is the way it was heralded in advance, but the fun was not, and could not be smothered. It broke out repeatedly, perpetually and persistently. The company is an aggregation of comedy stars. High praise is due John Wild, Chas. H. Bradshaw, F. M. Kendrick, T. B. Butler, Harry Brinsley, St. George Husey, Lena Merville, Adele Bray, Lottie Hyde and May Sheridan."

BIG BUSINESS.—The Virginia Midland railroad is doing a heavy freight business at this time. On Thursday twenty-eight cars were loaded on Union street for interior points with salt, plaster, coal, fish and other merchandise. A large number also come in loaded with grain, lumber, wood and other freight. There is a much larger business now being done in a quiet way in Alexandria than for several years past.

PERSONAL.—Mr. R. E. Janney will leave here in a few days for Chicago, where he has accepted a position.

Hon. J. S. Barbour has returned from New York, where he attended the meeting of the national democratic committee. He says the democratic outlook in New York, Indiana and Virginia is bright.

Miss Fannie King left yesterday for a ten days' visit to Richmond.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge Charles E. Stuart presiding. Perry, Smoot & Co. vs. W. H. Brooks, judgment for plaintiff.

Court adjourned till Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Belle Haven Assembly of Knights of Labor, of this city, has given up its hall and disbanded.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Thos. H. Powers and Mary C. Reany, of Stafford county.

Mr. Wm. Stonestreet, a well known citizen of Prince George's county, Md., died suddenly at his home on Tuesday night last of heart disease.

The Washington Kennel Club will meet on the 19th inst. to decide upon arrangements for a fall trial some time next month at Round Hill, Loudoun county.

The Alexandria Light Infantry last night returned from Richmond, where they went to take part in the representation of the battle of Gettysburg at the Exposition.

The case of Lewis McKenzie against Alice Underwood came up before Justice Bingham of the Washington court yesterday and after being argued by counsel was submitted to the court.

Wm. Smith, the colored man who was shot by Judge Sangster on Monday night, and who is recovering from his wound, is a son of Gabriel, and not Benjamin Smith as has been stated.

Reports from the Chesapeake bay state that the Virginia oyster-gunboat Chesapeake is making it warm for the illegal dredgers, and much unlawful work by Virginia and Maryland oystermen is being broken up.

The oldest colored woman in King George county, probably the oldest person in Tidewater Virginia, died near Comom last Saturday night, aged about 112 years. She was a native of Alabama, and moved to Virginia shortly after the war, with some King George darkies who were sent South in the days of slavery.

While a Richmond and Danville freight train was descending a heavy grade three miles south of Charlotte, N. C., yesterday, the coupling broke. The detached section of the train ran into the forward section and seven box cars were wrecked, causing a blockade that delayed travel five hours. The brakemen jumped and escaped unhurt.

The delegation of Sioux Indians who left their reservation to confer with the government authorities in regard to the proposed sale of their reservation, passed through this city over the Midland road last night for Washington. The party consisted of about sixty Indians, including Old Sitting Bull, several interpreters and five agency employees.

The Woodlawn Farmers' Club held their monthly meeting to-day at the farm of Mr. T. W. Blair, below this city.

DRY GOODS.

A FEW THINGS OF INTEREST.

The trade of September, 1887, was so satisfactory and the increase over the same month of any former year of our business was so great that we made mention of it at the time. The September last past shows an equally gratifying condition of affairs, and so far as lies in our power nothing has been left undone to produce a like result in October.

OUR CARPET DEPARTMENT

Has materially contributed to this success. In it we have put a most desirable assortment of Carpets.

HEMP, BEST EXTRA SUPER INGRAIN, COTTON CHAIN, THREE-PLY, RAG, TAPESTRY BRUSSELS,

Pine Wool Body Brussels, Cotton Warp Ingrain, Velvet, all-wool Ingrain, Wilton Velvet, &c. &c.

OIL CLOTHS. 4-4, 6-4 AND 8-4.

8-4 English Corticene, superior to Linoleum.

Mats, Rugs, Art Squares, Stair Pads, Stair Buttons and, in short, all lines of goods that go to make up the complete stock of a well-ordered establishment. We have extra good values in

11-4 AND 12-4 BLANKETS.

They are even better bargains than any we had during our great Blanket sale of a few years past. The recent arrival of an

ENTIRELY NEW LINE OF TRUNKS,

Places us in a position to offer superior goods at reasonable prices.

We have lately closed out all of the old stock of UMBRELLAS, and now have only new and fresh goods at popular prices.

Special attention is called to the good bargain in

Gentlemen's White Shirts at 50 and 75c.

Our Dress Goods Department

Is fully equipped with many desirable fabrics.
